Media Permission Form (Adult)

Media images bring life to and help tell the story of the vibrant faith community of Foothills United Methodist Church. Photos taken during events and activities at Foothills UMC may be used in bulletins, posters, brochures, newsletters, and other printed materials, as well as on our website and social media sites. They enhance the quality of the information provided to our members and give visitors an idea of what to expect when they attend our church.

Please fill out and sign the portion below and indicate your preference as to the use of media images. No identifying information will ever accompany photos or recordings, including names, addresses, email addresses, family members' names, or names of work or school.

- Yes, I grant permission to Foothills United Methodist Church to use images of me in church communications and publications in both digital and printed mediums.* I understand that I may withdraw this permission at any time by contacting the church office via email at Office@FoothillsUMC.net or by submitting a written request to withdraw permission.
- No, I do not grant permission to Foothills United Methodist Church to use images of me in church communications and publications in either digital or printed mediums.
